

Residential Aged Care Communiqué 2022 Spring Webinar Series

Co-conveners: Prof Joseph E Ibrahim and Dr Bronwyn O’Gorman

Residential Aged Care: Balancing Risk & Duty of Care

Free Webinar

What do I do when a resident with dementia refuses to eat?

12.30 - 1.30pm Wed 14th September 2022 (AEST)

Relevant to medical, nursing and allied health professionals working in residential aged care

No cost

Must register to attend

Register now!

<https://bit.ly/3ohVUVs>

Program

Chair

Professor Joseph E Ibrahim, editor Residential Aged Care Communiqué

Case presentation

Dr Bronwyn O’Gorman, is an Advanced Trainee in Geriatric Medicine

Keynote Speaker

Professor Justin Oakley is the Deputy Director of Monash Bioethics Centre, Monash University and the author/editor of books including Virtue Ethics and Professional Roles as well as journal articles on the ethics of resource allocation in healthcare and informed consent.

Panel Members

Professor Deirdre Fetherstonhaugh is a registered nurse and the Director of the Australian Centre for Evidence Based Aged Care, La Trobe University. Her research focuses on the ethics, clinical practice and risk in aged care.

Dr Chelsea Baird is a geriatrician working in regional Victoria across acute and subacute inpatient services with an interest in safety and quality in healthcare.

Save these dates

Wed 19th Oct ‘The resident didn’t say he felt sick’.

Wed 16th Nov ‘Let me eat what I want!’